

Win family tickets to the spectacular motorcycle show

AT this year's BMF Motorcycle Show at The East of England Showground, Peterborough, you can expect to see displays from Triumph, Honda, Yamaha, BMW, Harley Davidson, Suzuki and Kawasaki and possibly many more.

Organisers BMF and Live Promotions Events Ltd have gone all out to get the main manufacturers keeping visitors up to speed on the latest bikes and information at the show on Saturday May 17 and Sunday 18.

This year's main arena will be host to a BMF Show first... 'Short Track' present the first BMF Grand Prix. The racing will begin on Saturday and culminate in the grand final on Sunday afternoon.

The Royal Artillery Motorcycle Display Team present 'The Flying Gunners'. Moped Enduro is back by popular demand.

There is an excellent line up of live music free for campers in the newly built 'EXEC' exhibition hall, supported by new sponsor Bike Animal. The stage will present classic punk band 'The Damned' on the Saturday evening, complete with lead singer and fellow bike lover Dave Vanian and of course Captain Sensible.

Top tribute band Limehouse Lizzy headline on Friday evening and supporting acts over the weekend include, Sisters of Murphy, Hooker, InnoFensive and new comers

Scream Blue Murder. The winners of 2007 Battle of the Bands competition, The Hoggz, will be opening the gig on Saturday evening.

There will also be a great range of stands with the latest accessories and equipment at bargain prices from earplugs to customised sprayed leathers.

Other attractions include fairground rides and sideshows including paint balling. Plus for budding baby bikers plenty of inflatable attractions.
